

Our needs change throughout life.

Our right to be heard, to choose, and to participate does not.